

THE EARLY DAYS OF THE SETTLERS

1600s

One of the oldest towns, founded in 1639, when farmers settled along the bay. Imagine the bay as a lively hub for fishing & trade back then, though you're more likely to see kayakers & osprey here today.

1639 Taylor Bray Farm Explore the span of history here! This bucolic working farm overlooking the marsh was founded by the earliest settlers; archeological findings show Native Americans here 10,000 years ago. See how farmhouses evolved, visit animals & the trail. 108 Bray Farm Rd., taylorbrayfarm.org, 774-251-1869

1639 Ancient Cemetery Visit the resting place of early settlers & the rock marking the spot of the First Congregational Church cofounded with the town, now on Zion Hill (22). See the Historical Society of Old Yarmouth at hsoy.org for tours by settlers visiting their graves. Center St., 508-778-6624

Bass Hole/Gray's Beach This was the original town port & shipbuilding center. For extraordinary views & sunsets, walk the boardwalk along the beautiful bay, marsh & osprey nests. Picnic at the small beach or enclosed area. 400 Center St.

1696 Old Yarmouth Inn Today this early stagecoach stop is a popular watering hole with delicious food year round. 223 Rte. 6A, oldyarmouthinn.com, 508-362-9962

BUSINESS DEVELOPS ALONG BASS RIVER

1700s—1800s

In 1713, the town set aside an area along the river for Yarmouth's Native American tribes, known as Indian Town. After their numbers declined because of disease & migration, the town leased the lands to members of the Friends Society, the Quakers. Quaker Village became a bustling center of fishing, freighting, ropeworks & saltworks. Today, you'll see many early residences that have been lovingly preserved here.

South of the bridge, the Bass River community transported goods, salt & the grains produced in the mills along the river. From the earliest days, mills ground the corn & wheat that were central to the survival & prosperity of the people.

Step back in time at the Town of Yarmouth's authentically renovated windmill.

1713/1881 Indian Memorial Erected in 1881, a cairn of rocks near Long Pond commemorates the indigenous peoples of this area. Learn more at the site on Indian Memorial Drive & visit Wings Grove Park & Playground nearby. For further info see Indian Memorial Dr., South Yarmouth

1808 The Friends Meetinghouse, Schoolhouse and Cemetery A fine example of the simplicity of Quaker architecture is open for special occasions. 58 N. Main St. For info on tours of this historical community, see hsoy.org.

Packet Landing Park & Marina

Now overlooking Bass River at the bridge, this was the original residential center of the Quaker community. It was once the site of a wharf, a forge & the first town ferry in 1774, used to cross the river to what is now Dennis.

1845 Capt. Farris House B&B The Farris family operated one of the oldest windmills on the Cape. The Farris Windmill, which stood behind the library on Mill Street, is now in the Henry Ford Museum. See an old millstone used as their front step! 308 Old Main St., 508-760-2818

1931 Bass River Savings Bank/Cultural Center of Cape Cod Inside this beautifully preserved bank you'll find a major art & entertainment center where there is always something exciting happening. 307 Old Main St., cultural-center.org, 508-394-7100

Smuggler's Beach Where you could once see rumrunners unloading liquor, you can now see paragliders and sailboats at this popular beach. Corner of South St. and S. Shore Dr.

1791 Judah Baker Windmill & Park Go inside to see how the millers ground corn that was transferred to boats along the river for shipping. Enjoy beautiful views of the river & a small beach. Here you'll also learn about the town's extensive Saltworks along the river & about Crowell's Pier & the breakwater, which was vital for shipping & also useful to the rumrunners of Smuggler's Beach (11) during Prohibition. 89 River St. For hours open with docent tours, call 508-778-1008

THE THRIVING VILLAGE

1800s

Strawberry Lane — The Village Green This historic Yarmouth Common, once a pond where villagers dug clay for bricks, is a good place to start to explore the homes & imagine what life was like in this era.

1840 Captain Bangs Hallet House Museum Enter the life of a Sea Captains' family. See how they dressed, dined & decorated. Learn about the Clipper ships. Marvel at the 70 ft. wide Weeping Beech Tree in the back. Pick up a map of the Captains' Mile walking tour of Sea Captains homes along Rte. 6A or go to hsoy.org for info on this and all events organized by the Historical Society. 11 Strawberry Ln., hsoy.org, 508-362-3021

1820 Edward Gorey House It's fun for the whole family to ramble through the home of this famous author & illustrator of Gothic humor where he created, collected oddities & cared for his cats from 1986 until he died. 8 Strawberry Ln., edwardgoreyhouse.org, 508-362-3909

1730/1860 Compass Rose Inn One of many houses added to over the years that have been preserved as inns today. Its Federal architecture was later influenced by the French fashions of the day. See Captains' Houses that are inns today at yarmouthcapecod.com. 277 Rte. 6A, compassrosecapecod.com, 508-362-4348

1850 Gorham Cobbler Shop Now the office of the Historical Society of Old Yarmouth You can also enter the 50 acres of Nature Trails behind the shop & see the 1873 Kelley Chapel, available for your events. 229 Rte. 6A, hsoy.org, 508-362-3021

1849 The Optimist Café/Capt. Frederick Howes House Enjoy a scrumptious breakfast or lunch at this excellent example of Gothic Revival architecture on picturesque Rte. 6A. This Sea Captain was famous for his invention of the 'topsail rig' & his family's genality. 134 Rte. 6A, optimistcafe.com, 508-362-1024

1774/1825 Liberty Hill Inn The site of the original Liberty Pole, where the town gathered to support the Revolutionary War. 77 Rte. 6A, libertyhillinn.com, 508-362-3976

1870 First Congregational Church of Yarmouth The 3rd site of the church established with the original settlers, which still holds to the pilgrims' covenant of self-government. 329 Main St., fccyarmouth.org, 508-362-6977. Go east on Rte. 6A to visit the sites of the earliest settlers.

1889 Hallet's Store An old-fashioned soda fountain & ice cream parlor run by the family of the original founders who were prominent early settlers. Vintage fixtures, photos & memorabilia will take you back to their earlier time in Yarmouth. 139 Rte. 6A, FB: @hallet1889, 508-362-3362

VACATIONERS FLOCK TO THE SOUND

1800s—Today

Once rural, today Rte. 28 has a range of affordable places to stay & attractions for all ages, including an inflatable water park & adventure miniature golf. Don't miss seeing our newest attraction — a unique museum that transports you to the Age of Piracy of the 1700s!

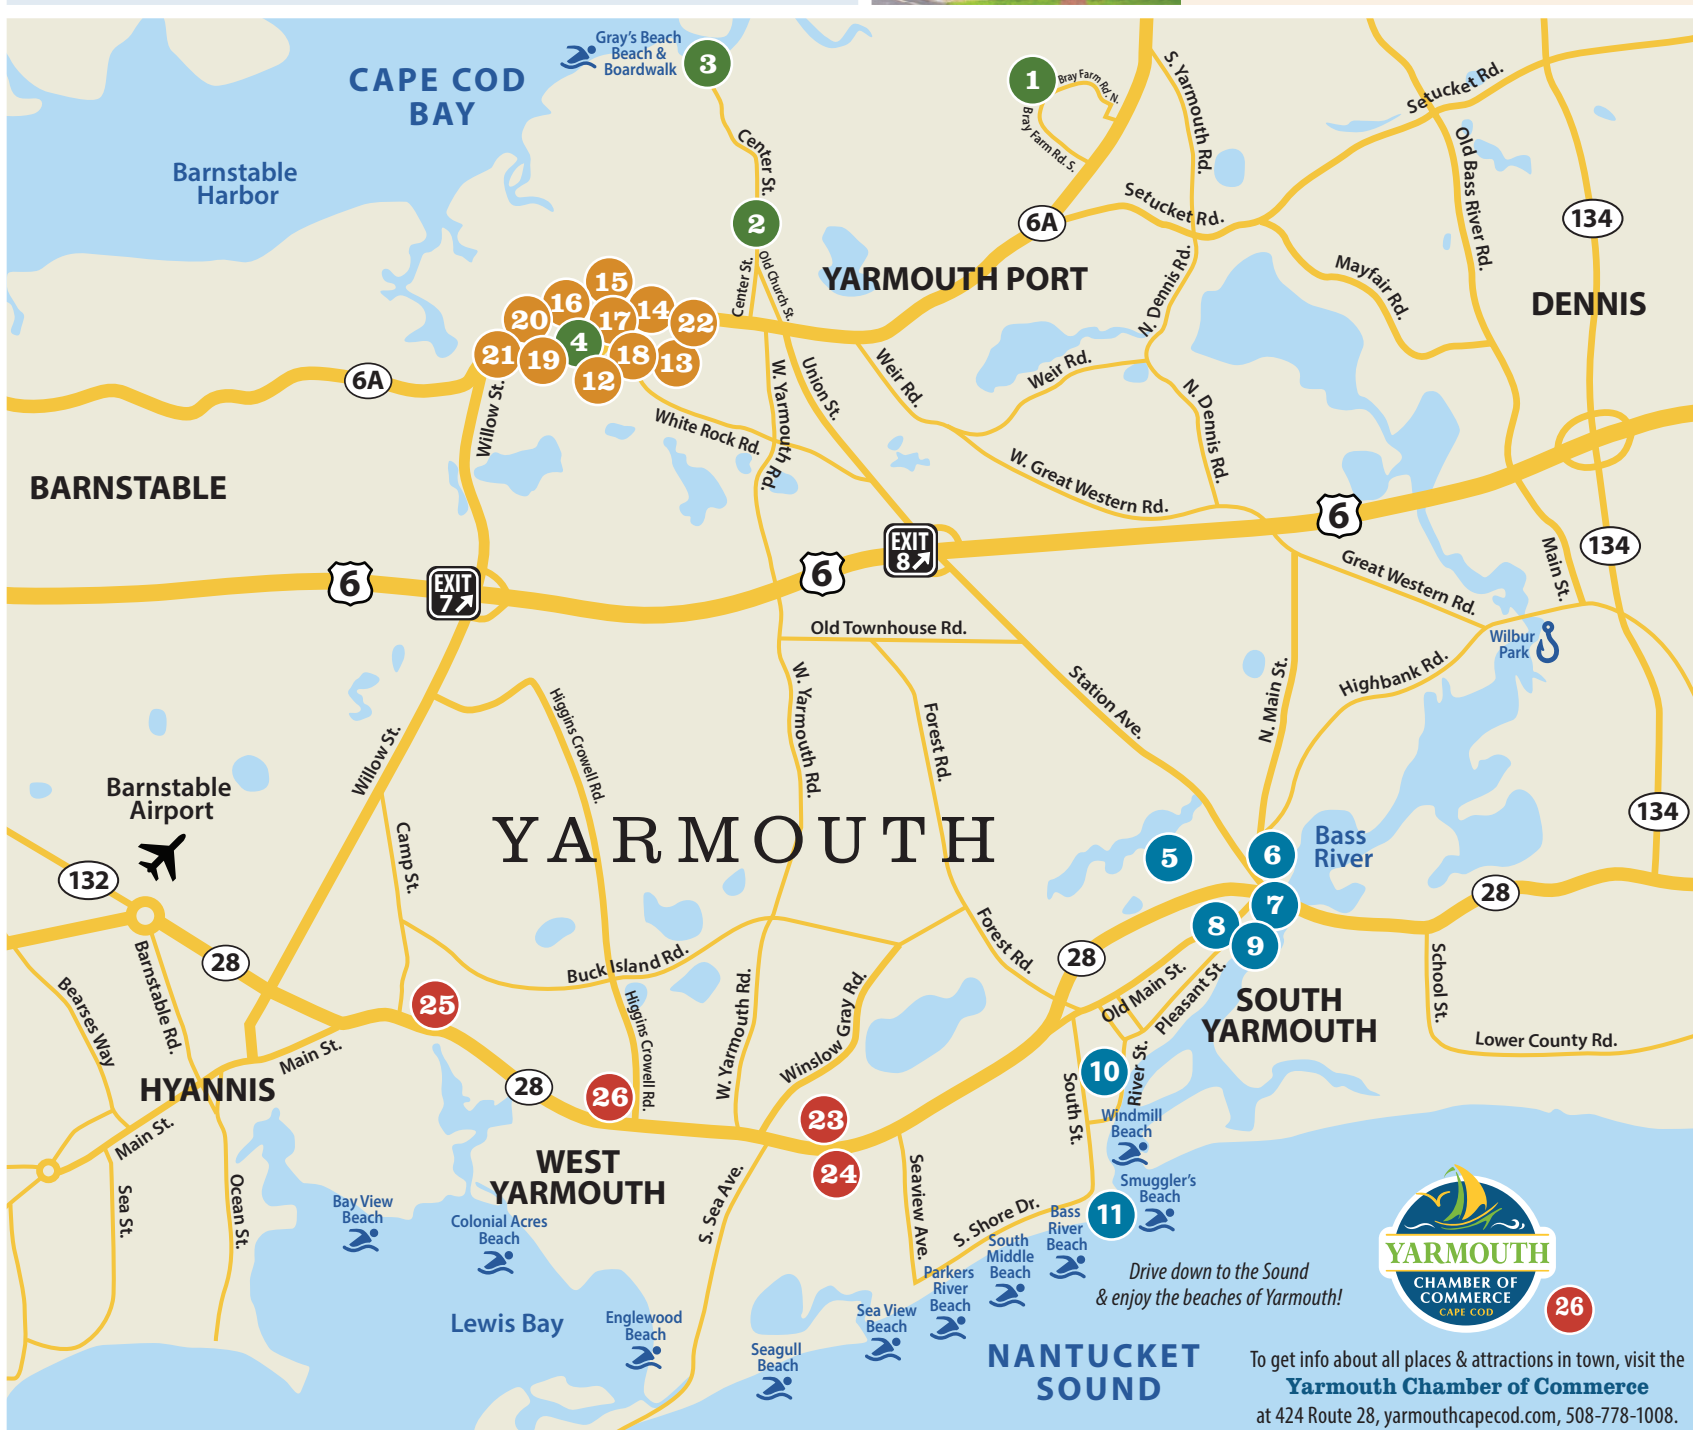

1717/2016 The Whydah Pirate Museum See & touch real pirate treasure from ships captured by the Whydah that sunk off the coast of Wellfleet in 1717. Discovered in 1985, its treasure was brought to Yarmouth, where you can watch ongoing efforts to free artifacts from the encrustations of the sea. See the ship's bell, walk through the galley replica, learn about Captain Sam Bellamy & the life of the pirates & their surprising brotherhood. 674 Rte. 28, discoverpirates.com, 508-534-9571

Parker's River Across from the Whydah on Rte. 28, the former site of a drive-in movie now hosts music festivals & big events. A park is being developed along the riverside.

1710 The Baxter Grist Mill The only surviving turbine water-powered mill on the Cape. The dam & water ladders have recently been restored. Parking is available to see the pond, herring run & swans in season. The Mill is not currently open. 151 Rte. 28 at Mill Pond

To get info about all places & attractions in town, visit the Yarmouth Chamber of Commerce at 424 Route 28, yarmouthcapecod.com, 508-778-1008.